

FIGURES SHOW UP STRENGTH OF THE PALS AND SAINTS

Locals Scored 55 Runs to 25 for St. Augustine Club

With all relations between the Pals and the Saints definitely cancelled intimations of Earl Blue that the Pals were afraid to continue the game Sunday afternoon—afraid of defeat rather than of any personal harm—is ridiculous. The Pals lost two games to the Saints, won six and tied one, with the Pals scoring 55 runs to the Saints 25. In these games the Pals hit safely eighty nine times while the Saints scored 42, less than half.

Blue also said that Valdez was the only pitcher that has been able to show any strength against the Saints. On May 4 Epperson let them down with two safe hits and two runs and shut them out here with two hits on June 10.

When Harry Evans was arrested for striking a fourteen year old boy here last season and was accorded every protection, a committee of prominent citizens went to St. Augustine and apologized for the conduct of a few irresponsible persons. Palatka knows that the element which made the trouble at St. Augustine Sunday is not upheld by the substantial citizens of St. Augustine, but are unable to understand the attitude of those citizens in not either splitting the gate money with the Palatka club, or giving it to charity.

If Palatka isn't entitled to share in the gate money, much of it being taken in after the game had been called, St. Augustine certainly is not entitled to it, and it should be given to the children's home at Jacksonville, or some other charitable institution. When the president of the Saints organization agreed with the Management of the Palatka club that it was dangerous to continue the game, and made a public announcement to the grand stand, there seems little room for contention.

The attitude taken by the fans here is that if St. Augustine is satisfied with the treatment of visitors last Sunday no one else has a kick. There is a disposition, however, in other sections of the state to steer clear of the organization there, and the Jacksonville teams' attitude is reflected in comments in Walter Lynch's column in the Times-Union this morning when he says that the fans in Jacksonville want to see the Pals and the Terriers of Lake City, in action at South Side Park.

(By Associated Press)

YANKS' STAR BATTER
(By Associated Press)

SKIDDING YANKEES TRAILING BROWNS AFTER 8 DEFEATS

(By Associated Press)
New York, June 20—Trailing the leading St. Louis Browns by two and a half games today as a result of their eighth straight defeat, the skidding Yankees faced a battle to retain even second place against the rush of Ty Cobb's hard-hitting Detroit club. The Tigers, by winning their seventh in a row, were within two games of the New Yorkers.

Babe Ruth connected for his seventh homer in the first inning of the game with Cleveland, but lost his temper over a decision in the eighth and was banished once more from the field. The Yankees also lost the game in this inning, Speaker's men falling on Carl Mays' under-hand delivery and driving across three runs to win by 4-2. Duster Mails twirled great ball, striking out nine of the Yankees. Ruth twice was turned back in this way.

Harry Heilmann's great hitting streak was stopped by Fullerton while the Tigers were outslugging the Red Sox, 11 to 9. The Detroit star had registered ten consecutive hits, one less than the record of eleven established by Speaker in 1920.

The Browns increased their lead by nosing out the Athletics, 3-2, McManus driving in the winning run in the seventh after a duel between Kolp and Heimach.

The St. Louis Cardinals hit Phil Douglas hard in the early innings and took their second straight from the Giants. Pfeffer checked the champions in the ninth after Earl Smith

GIRL HAD PAINFUL TIMES

Mothers—Read This Letter and Statement Which Follows

Portland, Indiana.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she guessed she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial." — STELLA NEWTON, R. R. 8, Portland, Indiana.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy.

If she complains of headache, pains in back or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter to take, as it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in safety.

Baseball Gossip

Blue says the newspapers forced him to stop playing the Pals. The last game played with the Pals was on May 4, before the resumption of hostilities two weeks ago, and the score was 19 to 2 in favor of the Pals. Nothing was ever printed in this newspaper that could have offended the most sensitive until correspondence between Mr. Fearnside and Mr. Blue was published in the latter part of May, showing that Palatka wanted to continue the series. That's what made Blue mad. Several letters were sent before he answered, and the last one was registered and he signed the receipt.

Blue takes a nasty fling at Umpire Poole, who, he says, was not permitted to "umpire for Palatka" in the Ocala and Leesburg series. Blue knew full well that Poole, who is a physical wreck from injuries received while fighting for his country, was in a hospital in Jacksonville during the last road trip of the Pals. Blue also knows if there ever was an umpire beyond reproach that it is Poole, and that he has umpired many games in St. Augustine and is acceptable now to Ocala, who is playing under him, and will be acceptable to Leesburg when that club comes here.

Blue gets a lot of satisfaction out of the disastrous road trip the Pals made last week with a crippled team, on muddy fields and against clubs considerably stronger than the Saints. The Pals are content to stand on their record for the season.

Walter Lynch has some nice things to say about the Pals in today's T-U. He credits this club, with the Lake City aggregation, as being the strongest in the state. He should also reckon with Ocala, which, with one or two first-class hitters, would be hard to beat.

"Red" Ulrich comes nearer having the fire requisite for a great pitcher that we have seen this year, control. Christy Mathewson in his prime, pitched game after game in the big leagues without using a curve ball. High outside, low inside and vice versa. Red didn't pass a man nor hit one.

Liddell's work in center was scintillating. He cut off a pair of doubles, one by Quinn and one by Peters, started a rally with a home run. Brooklyn staged a whirlwind ninth inning rally against the Pirates, scoring four runs to tie the score, and won in the 14th, 6 to 5.

Pinch hitter Peters' homer in the ninth with two on enabled the Phils to beat the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, while Ferdie Schupp, ex-Giant, who is staging a comeback, with the White Sox, held Washington to four hits, fanned ten, and won, two to nothing.

by as brilliant catches as we have seen this year.

Cally looks like another Freddy Parent at short. With his speed and snap throw he should never again go into the outfield when he has such value as an infielder. Quinn plugs the vacant hole out there, if he did let a couple get away yesterday. He was not accustomed to the terrain. He made up for it with the stick, just like he did over in Saintland Sunday.

Van Landingham is a bulwark of strength on defense as well as offense for the Wildcats. He handled six chances at the hot corner, and poled out a couple of safeties.

Senor Villarino has donned a Wildcat uniform and was given a hand when he went in to pinch hit for Brooks. He came near bouncing one of his horseshoe hits over Epp's head. It would have won the game.

Cocoa, with a strong club, comes tomorrow for a series of three games, after which the Pals will again go up against Ted Easterly's Terribles.
